

Julie Johnson is the Deputy of LTSS Operations for the Bureau of TennCare. In this role, Johnson oversees the department's daily operations and implementation of new initiatives. She also directs the division's business analysis, process improvement and training activities. She began serving Tennesseans at TennCare in 1999 and joined Long Term Services and Supports in 2010.

Johnson earned her Bachelor of Science degree at Middle Tennessee State University.